Apple teacher discount code

Apple has a reputation for making devices like laptops and tablets built to last. However, that durability comes at a steep price. If you're a student, save money on products like MacBooks and iPads with Apple student discounts through UNiDAYS, or take advantage of Apple's education pricing directly through the company. Apple Education Pricing and Student Discounts are available to college students, educators, and homeschool teachers. ljubaphoto/iStock/Getty Images Unlike most student discounts, Apple's education prices are available to a wide range of students and educators at all grade levels. To qualify for Apple's education pricing, you must meet at least one of these requirements: Currently enrolled in a college or university. Newly accepted in college or university. A teacher at any grade level. A homeschool teacher at any grade level. Faculty or staff in schools of any grade level. The price of education provides a small discount on most Apple products. Store in the Apple MacBook, iMac, and iPad lines, as well as some accessories and monitors. In some cases, larger discounts are available on certain products, such as Apple Music. Apple's educational pricing site shows the price you'll pay with an education discount, but doesn't show the original price. To see how much you'll save on a particular product, check out those products at Apple's education store, check the same products in a regular Apple store, then compare prices. For example, in the Apple Education Store, a basic 13-inch MacBook Air is listed for $899, while it's $999 in regular Apple stores online. Saving money through the Apple Education Store is a simple matter of shopping through an education store website instead of a regular online Apple store. You don't need to sign up for anything. You'll be using a regular Apple account. There is no verification process in advance. Here's how to use Apple education pricing: Navigate to the Apple Education Store. Select the product line you're interested in. Select the product you want, and then select Select. Select the options you want, and then select Add to Bag. Select Review Bag. Select Check Out. Choose your shipping method, enter your payment information, and complete the checkout process normally. Although Apple does not verify your education price qualification at the time of purchase, it sometimes conducts audits. If you can't verify your registration, Apple reserves the right to charge your credit card for the difference between your education and the regular price on the item you purchased. To be eligible for Apple student discounts at UNiDAYS, you must meet some basic requirements and prove your eligibility. You must be: At least 16 years old. Currently enrolled in a college or university. Can access .edu emails issued by your school or credit card-style student IDs from your school. do not allow parents to register for their children. Students must register themselves, and they must meet the age and Requirements. Apple student discounts on UNiDAYS vary based on current offers. Coupon codes typically give a flat discount on certain products, such as $200 off MacBooks, or share promotions that are on Apple's website. The availability and types of Apple student discounts found at UNiDAYS vary, so you should check frequently to keep up with the latest offers. Unlike the Apple Education Store, which doesn't immediately verify your qualification status, UNiDAYS verifies your educational status in advance. You must provide proof of registration before gaining access to the discount offer. UNiDAYS can automatically verify student enrolment at most four-year universities and colleges. Manual verification is available for many schools that are not in the system. Other companies, including Dell, use UNiDAYS to offer discounts. Once you've signed up and verified your registration, take advantage of UNiDAYS student discount codes for hundreds of companies. Here's how to sign up and get verified as a student on the UNiDAYS website to take advantage of Apple discounts. Set up your account on a Mac, PC, or portable device, such as a smartphone. Navigate to the UNiDAYS website and select Menu (three vertical lines) in the upper-left corner. Select Join now. Enter your email address, choose a password, and then choose Join now. Enter your school information and select Continue. Follow the onscreen instructions to complete the verification process. If you can't verify automatically or if your school isn't enrolled, contact UNiDAYS for manual verification instructions. To get Apple student discounts through UNiDAYS, check out Apple's current offerings. If you find the one you want to use, UNiDAYS generates a coupon code for you to use on Apple's website, or the site gives you an activation link that automatically applies the promotion and takes you to Apple's website. Here's how the process works: Navigate to Apple's UNiDAYS portal and browse through available offers. Select Get It Now on the offer you want. Select Redeem Code if there is a coupon code, or select Activate Promotion, which takes you to Apple's website with a discount that is applied automatically. The types of discount deals vary. Sometimes coupon codes are available, and other times you are given the option to apply the discount. If you have code to redeem, copy it, and then select Launch Website. Apply a discount code during your regular checkout process on Apple's website. Thanks for telling us! Tell us why! Apple's Apple education pricing, which typically knocks about 10 percent off the price of most Apple products, is available to the following people: Current and newly accepted college students and their parents. Faculty and staff of all grade levels. Homeschool teacher. If you're one of those people, you can get Apple's new iPad for the price 309, not the $329 list price. The special price of $299 that Apple announced today is for schools, not individual buyers. It is quite easy to prove if you are in or work for a college: You may have a student ID and/or college email address. If you're a K-12 teacher, I'm sure you have something of an equivalent. But how do you prove you're a homeschool parent? Well, the answer is: don't worry about it. To buy products with Apple education discounts, you just have to go to the Apple Education Pricing store, select your gear (there's a limit to how much you can buy a year), and check out. It's like buying anything on Apple's website, unless it's cheaper. If Apple isn't sure about your status adjacent to your education, Apple might email you for verification, but you don't need to provide any ID or certificate up front. This is not the case for any country. For example, in the UK you need to verify the status of your students or staff with UniDAYS, a program that annually pings registered emails to confirm that they are still active students. But if you want a $309 iPad or an $849 MacBook Air now, and you live in the U.S., and you're a teacher or college student, life is pretty simple.
